2/19/2013	11:11 AM	Met with Morten at NTA 2013 in Orlando (Operator request) Glacier Country has been working with Morten over the last year to dial in his six departure date tours to Glacier Country (10 day tour) and during our meeting he requested information on the native Indian element. Previous tours have scheduled stops at the People Center and the Tipi Village, but feels like he needs something different. We talked about perhaps contacting Sun Tours for the Blackfeet perspective on GNP. He doesn't want to give up the Jammer tour. I will send him Sun Tour information so he can contact about options and follow up, also David Walburn information. If you would like to offer native Indian element contact Morten at morten.anthun@dest-amer.com	Debbie Picard

2/19/2013	10:15 AM	Met with Eileen at NTA 2013 in Orlando (requested by me) I wanted an appointment to meet with Eileen since they bring tours from Calgary to Yellowstone but do not include Glacier Country. She did say that they have offered this yearly, and feels like it is time to "mix it up" and spend at least a day in GNP. We talked also about heading down the Flathead Valley to Missoula then on to Yellowstone. She asked for the Best of Missoula hub-and-spoke itinerary, since she said her clients do not like to change hotels nightly. If they came to Missoula they would stay for at least 2 nights. I will forward her the itinerary and follow up with 2014 tours. Also send her GPI information since she want to add a day to her current itinerary. Missoula area member partners can send her information at eileen@samstoursinc.com	Debbie Picard

Clients will motorcoach from Salt Lake City in July 2013. He likes the Red Lion Kalispell as a lodging option, but is open to other bids. He develops smaller tours, roughly 20 people specializing in affinity groups. They will want a Jammer tour and wants dinner options in Kalispell. He is familiar with both Missoula and Kalispell as a past tour planner with another operator. I offered to send him our itineraries just as a refresher. 2/13/2013	3:20 PM	Met with Kevin Davis and Michael Booker at NTA 2013 in Orlando (my request) In reviewing their products, they did not have tours scheduled on their website and I wanted to meet to see if we could entice them to develop a tour in Glacier Country. They only work with bank travel clubs, currently 50 different clubs around the country. They only research and book tours that their clients request. He is a huge fan of Glacier National Park and goes on his own often. He was speaking to Michael and telling him all about the Jammers and how they work and why they are called Jammers. He was glad we met and "when" his clients request Glacier, he is glad he has made a contact for future information. No follow up is needed at this time.	Debbie Picard

2/13/2013	10:54 AM	Met with Cathy Donahue at NTA 2013 in Orlando (requested by me) Collette is known worldwide and has tours all through out the west. When I met with Cathy I was surprised to hear her say that they do not have a tour specifically to Glacier Country. They do visit the Canadian Rockies, and take a day trip to do a Jammer ride but nothing else. She does want to put something together for 2015. She asked if I would send her itineraries. I think this could be a great opportunity for a series tour and will work with Cathy to put something together. I will be sending her all our itineraries for review and then will follow up to set up something specific with her. Cathy would be a great person to bring out on a FAM when the opportunity arises. I will follow up with member partners when I get a feel for what she wants in Glacier Country.	Debbie Picard

2/19/2013	2:21 PM	Met with Tom at NTA 2013 in Orlando (Mutual Request) Tom has had great success with an Amtrak tour that he has developed to Colorado and thinks he could have the same success to Montana/Glacier. His focus is on families/3 generations with different activities that they get to choose from. Flyfishing lessons for young and old, ww rafting includes an easy float for grandparents, then ww for youngsters. Hike into a fishing hole, horseback riding, chuckwagon dinner, hayrides, sing alongs. Of course he wants a Jammer tour, boat ride on lakes, shopping in Whitefish. He has a long standing relationship with Rocky Mountain Transportation once they get to Whitefish. He has found that the grandparents usually pay for the entire family so need to keep the price per person reasonable. This would be a great opportunity for our member partners that are offer guest ranch opportunities and outfitters to send him information at tom@edgertonstravel.com	Debbie Picard

We talked about transportation options for operators that send clients via Amtrak and planes. Flathead Travel will be a great resource for step on guides and transportation in Glacier Country Montana. They are at NTA largely for outbound trip ideas for their established clientele. The last time they were in Montana was in 2009 with a Canadian Rockies tour. Christine said she loves the area, but the demand is not there from her clients at this time. Sometimes it cycles that way, and maybe next year there will be more interest. She did seem interested in the developed itineraries and want me to email them to her. For our area, they fly into Calgary, visit GNP and then on to Yellowstone, out SLC. Alice was looking for a great group restaurant in Kalispell or Bigfork. Sent her links to the couple that Diane had sent to me as a referral. Alice also wanted information on the Izaak Walton Inn as a unique place for her FIT's to stay and groups for a stop and meal. Since she was familiar with GNP area, we talked extensively about the greater Missoula area and all the great things that would be a good addition to her tour and why to visit Missoula instead of heading straight to Yellowstone. She requested I send her our Missoula hub and spoke itinerary and is interested in the attractions and dining options in and around Missoula. 2/13/2013	3:32 PM	Met with Patricia at NTA 2013 in Orlando (mutual request) She specializes in custom preformed groups that travel around and look for performance opportunities. She usually gets requests for New York, Washington DC and Disneyland/Disneyworld. She has heard rumblings about looking at National Park opportunities and wants to know if I knew of any performance venues for youth choir or bands in my area. Example is Fort Bend Boys Concert Tour are ages 10-15. They spend 10 days in an area. They want to perform but then spend time exploring the outdoors. Is anyone looking for a group for festival or event that they could plug this group into? I will ask around about these type of oppotunities while in Glacier Country. Information should be sent to Patt@wittetravel.com	Debbie Picard

2/11/2013	2:03 PM	Met with Wendy Mainerich at NTA 2013 in Orlando (mutual request) Wendy has been looking at putting together a Glacier National Park itinerary to offer as an add-on to their cruises out of Seattle. We met with Margaret from Spokane to see about designing an itinerary that met all of our needs. She took the itinerary back after NTA and it was approved with a 3 night stay in the Whitefish area. Hotels to be determined, but pretty sure they will be utilizing Grouse Mountain Lodge. They will offer this tour starting with 8 different departure dates. They are interested in a Western BBQ dinner at Bar W Guest Ranch as well for one night. This is an excellent opportunity!! I will follow up with Wendy and the places she is requesting information about this week. Member partners that are attractions and outfitters in the Whitefish area can contact her at wmainerich@globusfamily.com	Debbie Picard

(Mutual Request) After a vacation visit from Jace Vogler, President of Holiday Vacations in 2011, along with his wife and teenage daughters we now have 10 departures planned for 2014. They all arrive via Amtrak on the Empire Builder out of Chicago, visit GNP, Whitefish and stay at Red Lion Kalispell. They then motorcoach to Helena, Yellowstone, Jackson and out Salt Lake City. Per Suzanne, Jace loves it here and he wants the next tier of things to do in Western Montana. She also said to tell me he LOVES Kettlehouse Brewery Cold Smoke Beer! I will send the rest of our itineraries for suggested tours. And follow up for 2014 final details. Any correspondence should go through Suzanne sholt@holidayvacations.net	Debbie Picard
